The Treasurer's report was approved

- Financial review complete
- Taxes filed

MEMBERSHIP REPORT

No new members to be voted in

TRAINING DIRECTOR'S REPORT

The two classes per dog policy for Session II, seemed to work well. There were more people getting into classes, and coupled with the updated website, there were no complaints.

ENROLLMENT REPORT

- Software upgrades were done by Joe Shields
  - Dry run was done to test enrollment and the few issues that were found were corrected before the actual enrollment
- 2 classes/dog was implemented and the waitlist was reduced
  - Sharon Hareza provided an analysis that quantified the waitlist reduction
- High level of cooperation from instructors and people signing up to move so maximize people getting into classes

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

- Amy Rusenko chair
  - Suzanne Vighetti and Clem Cretaux are the committee members

In May, we will be electing officers/directors to a two-year term for the following positions: President, Recording Secretary, Treasurer, and Roster/Enrollment Coordinator. Descriptions of the duties can found in Article VIII, Section 3 of the KCTC By-Laws (available at the "Members Only" section of the KCTC website).

Dan Mullaney will be stepping down as President. Ted Nowlen has agreed to be President.

Michelle Renger, Sharon Hareza, Amy Sandhagen and Bill Tullock (Director at Large) have agreed to continue in the respective positions.
Accepting any nominations from the floor.
